Bryan is Built on the Faith of our Fathers

Though positively a Christian institution, Bryan is denominationally unrelated, and invites as applicants for admission those of all denominations. Its purpose is to promote the will of God in the hearts of youth, and, with stimulating requirements of liberal arts, music, and pre-seminary Bible courses, to offer a gospel-loving fellowship during the four years of college life. The liberal arts courses lead to the B.A. and B.S. degrees.

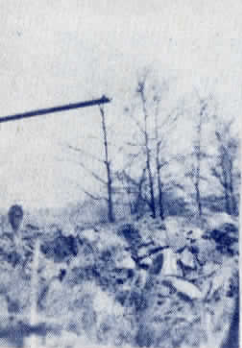

A Bryan graduate, writing from an Army training school, writes:

"Daily I get more lonely to visit Bryan. Daily I am more certainly convinced that Bryan offers one of the best balanced educations to be had. I have been put beside graduates of many big universities of the country and I have found that my background put me to advantage very often."

Practical experience is offered for prospective pastors and missionaries.

Expenses are very moderate. There are many opportunities for self-help to pay part of the cost. Inquiry may be made regarding scholarships under the Bryan Friend of Youth Movement.

Bryan is a Challenge to Youth of Character, Determination and Faith

At the renowned Scopes trial before the Court at Dayton, Tennessee, when Evolution was before the bar of justice and was adjudged a parasite on the spiritual life of the world, Mr. Darrow, as Chief of Counsel for the defense, made the unusual move of asking Mr. Bryan, Chief of Counsel for the prosecution, to take the witness stand. Mr. Bryan accepted the challenge. After much questioning and heated debate between counsel and witness, Mr. Bryan finally said: "The reason I am answering is not for the benefit of the Superior court. It is to keep these gentlemen from saying I was afraid to meet them and let them question me, and I want the Christian world to know that any atheist, agnostic or unbeliever can question me any time as to my belief in God and I will answer him."

"The purpose of this examination is to cast ridicule on everybody who believes in the Bible." Mr. Darrow almost screamed his reply: "We have the purpose of preventing bigots and ignoramuses from controlling the education of the United States" . . . "I am examining you on your fool ideas that no intelligent Christian on earth believes."

"The court is adjourned," snapped the judge.

It was just after his wonderful defense of the Christian faith and of the Bible that Mr. Bryan expressed the desire to see the erection of a college where the Bible is accepted as God's Holy Word, and where the fundamentals of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ are taught and put into practice in the daily life of the college. It was to meet this desire of the Defender of the Faith that his friends perfected plans for such a college, and William Jennings Bryan University was the result. It stands as a beacon light of Christian Education, on Bryan Hill, overlooking the town of Dayton, where the great commoner breathed his last and entered into the presence of his Lord and Master, Jesus, the Christ, the Prince of Peace and coming King.
